Analysis of Proposed Consent Order To Aid Public Comment

The Federal Trade Commission has accepted, subject to final approval, an agreement containing a proposed Consent Order from Commonwealth Land Title Insurance Company ("Commonwealth"), a subsidiary of LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc. The proposed Consent Order is designed to remedy the anticompetitive effects arising from Commonwealth's proposed consolidation of its title plant for Washington, D.C., with that of a competitor, First American Title Insurance Company ("First American"). Title plants are privately owned collections of records and/or indices that are used by abstractors, title insurers, title insurance agents, and others to determine ownership of and interests in real property in connection with the underwriting and issuance of title insurance policies and for other purposes. Under the terms of the agreement Commonwealth will be required to take certain steps to ensure that its title plant is operated as a separate, independent competitor; to restore its customers to the competitively-determined prices and terms that existed prior to the proposed consolidation; and to refund to its customers amounts charged for title plant services during the pendency of the proposed consolidation in excess of those prior prices and terms.

The proposed Consent Order has been agreed to by Commonwealth and by its parent corporation.¹ The Consent Order has been placed on the public record for 60 days so that the Commission may receive comments from interested persons. Comments received during this period will become part of the public record. After 60 days, the Commission will again review the agreement and the comments received, and will decide whether it should withdraw from the agreement or make final the agreement's proposed order.

Title plants are privately-owned collections of title information obtained from public records that can be used to conduct title searches or otherwise

¹ Since the time the proposed Consent Order was agreed to by Commonwealth, Commonwealth has been acquired by Lawyers Title Corporation, now known as LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc. The proposed Order by its terms defines "Commonwealth" broadly to include its parent, which has agreed to be bound by the terms of the Order.
